

THEATER OF ILLUSION

by Nox Arcana, 2010

21 tracks

With their 11th release, Nox Arcana has done something a little different it seems. While all under the theme of magic, dark illusions, and the mysterious creators of these images of trickery, each track seems to stand on its own, as opposed to combining to one long story. Each track gives us a different trick, a different glimpse into the work of the dark enchanters and those of slight of hand. From illusions to hypnotists, this soundscape lays out a theme each of them, filled with the usual dark and fun music that we expect from Nox Arcana. Filled with pianos, chimes, chants, and everything else you'd need for a nice quite nice, in your dark and fogged filled theater of your mind.

You can get more information about this release, as well as their others from their website HERE

