

THE DARK TOWER

by Nox Arcana, 2011

21 Tracks, with a total running time of 65 min.

It has been over a year since we got to take a musical journey into the unknown, with Nox Arcana leading the way. But since Joseph Vargo is busy doing so much, with many other projects. Two of those had come together in the form of an anthology of stories based on his artwork. Vargo, along with several other writers contributed 13 tales of gothic traditions. So what does this have to do with this CD? Simple. Because Nox Arcana has created a soundtrack for this book. Each of the 21 tracks features a theme from one of the stories. Such as Vampire's Kiss or Dark Desire, this cd gives you an audio accompaniment to the stories as you read them.

And just like all of Nox Arcana's work, as you play the cd, you are waiting for the fog to slowly seem out of your speakers, filling the room with a dark mist, waiting for a dark intruder to enter. From the use of echoing pianos, to the haunting voices, they have again created a very memorable piece of music. We get a range of music, from the slow and eerie to the more fast paced, tension building pieces. Like all of their work, this comes highly recommended.

You can read more about this CD and Vargo's other work/projects by going to their official site HERE.

